PREFACE.

This catalogue includes all current periodicals received at the Public Library of Victoria, including under that term magazines, newspapers, and publications of societies and government departments.

It is compiled on the Dictionary principle, the main entry being under the title of the periodical, or under the name of the society or department responsible for its publication, whilst a shorter entry appears under the subject to which the periodical is devoted. In some cases, where no definite subject entry can be used, what is known as a form entry is substituted. E.g.: Almanacs and directories; Literature. General and literary periodicals; Newspapers.

In the case of government publications entered under the name of a country, a subordinate division of a department is used for a heading instead of the name of the department followed by the various sub-divisions. E.g.: United States. Bureau of animal industry, instead of United States. Department of agriculture. Bureau of animal industry.

The period of issue is indicated as follows:—

d.	daily.	2m.	bi-monthly.
w.	weekly.	q.	quarterly.
½*w.*	bi-weekly.	y.	yearly.
⅓*w.*	tri-weekly.	½*y.*	half-yearly.
m.	monthly.	⅓*y.*	three times a year.
½*m.*	fortnightly.	⅕*y.*	five times a year.
⅓*m.*	three times a month.	2y.	biennially.
⅔*m.*	three times in two months.	irreg.	irregularly.

Introductory note. By the Judicature Act, 1873, various courts of law were consolidated into the Supreme court of judicature. This was divided into:—

A. High court of justice, sub-divided into:
1. Chancery division.
2. Queen's bench division.
3. Common pleas division.
4. Exchequer division.
5. Probate, divorce, and admiralty division.

In 1881, nos. 2, 3, and 4 were consolidated into one division, called the Queen's bench division.

B. Court of appeal.

Sections 21 and 22 of the act of 1873 provided for the vesting of the appellate jurisdiction of the House of lords and of the Judicial committee of the Privy council in the Court of appeal. These sections were repealed by the Appellate Jurisdiction Act, 1876, and the system of appeals to the House of lords and the Privy council re-established.

Paris salon.

Note. The Paris salon was subsidised from 1872 to 1880 by the Ministère des beaux-arts, which in 1881 instituted the Société des artistes français, now known also as the Old salon ; its exhibitions were held in the Palais de l' industrie of the Champs-Elysées until 1897. In 1890 the Meissonier party seceded from the parent body and formed a new society under the title of Société nationale des beaux-arts, known also as the New salon ; its exhibitions were held in the Palais des beaux-arts of the Champ-de-Mars until 1897. From 1898 the two salons have exhibited under the same roof, except in 1900 when the New salon held no exhibition.
